SENOUSSI AND OTHER SCARES.

The rews published by Reuter yester ay that a powerful expedition is preparing to attack the Emir of Hadeya in the North of British Nigeria, is doubtless or neeted with the recent invasion of S koto by a band of fanatics in the course of which a small British Who these fanatics were has not yet been revealed by the home Press, but in default of further news it seems as if the outbreak wa not isolated as far as the province is concerned though the population and the chiefs of Sokoto appear to have loyally seconded the efforts of the British authorities to over power the rebe's and the'r Mahdi. But we greatly doubt whether the Senoussi sect had any direct connection with the movement as a contributor to the "Pall Mall Gazette, recently quoted in our columns, has inferred The Senoussi and their leaders have always been pacific by habit and in policy. They have resisted all temptations to extend their propaganda by the sword, and though no doubt relatively well armed have consistently avoided collisions with any of their neighbours Sidi Mohamed Es Senoussi was on one occasion summoned by the Sudanese Mahdi to join him, but the recluse of Kufra ordered his followers to observe absolute neutrality in the struggle between Egypt and the revolted Sudanese, and though his disciples were no believed to cherish the friendliest feelings towards the Ottoman Government, abstained from any cor flict with the forces of the Sultar

In our opinion it is very donbtful whether the Senoussi sect is to be regarded, under the present circ matances, as of a y great political importance in N Africa. Were Tripoli and

Power and the independence of Kufra and the cases of the inner desert threatened by the pioneers of European civilisation, the procla-mation of a holy war might cause considerable disturbance in the wilder regions of N. Africa. But even in that case it is hard to see what they could effect. The invasion of Algeria, of Nigeria, or Senegal by barbarian hosts conquering and to conquer seems to us an idle dream. The Sahara could not support armies that must be reckoned by the hundred thousand to have the least chance of success, the resisting power of Europe even in her furthest outpests is terribly strong, and the horsemen of the desert would not have that superiority of tactics and organisation that gave victory to the hosts of Jenghiz Khan. Because European States once fell victims to the onslaughts of the Ottoman Turks, whose civilisa tion was in 'many respects superior to their own, and of the Mongols, whose leadership and military organisation have been proved by modern research to have been of the highest quality. European publicists of the present day are prone to elaborate theses on the coming conquest of the European possessions in Africa or Asia by hordes of barbarians, new Hons or Tartars. The victory of Japan is cited by the more imaginative, but the Japanese, already the heirs of an older civilisation than our own, won their great victories and their glorious place among the nations by a brilliant display of all the highest qualities that have advanced the chief European nations to their present greatness. To conquer civilised men the barbarian must become civilised himself, and we imagine that many generations will elapse before the dreams of those who are haunted by black, brown, yellow, or copper coloured perils

EGYPT'S TRADE WITH GREAT BRITAIN.

The Government Press at home, as was to be expected, is making the follest use of the latest trade returns as an argument against a proective tariff, and exhibits ill-concealed delight at having placed in its hands so effective a weapon of attack. In order to set out these returns to the best advantage, the "West-minster Gazette" has compiled, from the Sta-tistical Abstracts for the United Kingdom, an informing series of charts showing the increase of exports from Great Britain to her various foreign markets at the end of each decade since 1856 to 1904. This is prefixed by a table of the exports during the latter year, from which it appears that British India is our largest customer, the great dependency receiving in 1904 goods to the enormous value of £40,641,000. This is fifteen and a half millions in excess of the exports to Germany, the second country in the list, and only five millions less than the combined imports of Germany and the United States. In the 49 years under review India's imports were doubled, but those of Germany o ly show a moderate advance, for the averge annual value in million £ in the years 1870 1880 is given as 22.9, and in the years 1901-1904 as 23.8, though it should be pointed out that between 1881-1890 the average had fallen to 17.5.

Egypt is placed eleventh in the list with a total value of imports from the United Kingdom in 1904 of £8,273,000, and it is noticeable that there is only a difference of about five millions between this amount and that of the Cape, which holds fifth place, while China and Italy import respectively but £536,000 and £98,000 more than Egypt. Russia is the smallest importer with £8,230,000.

A reference to the chart devoted to Egypt's imports reveals the fact that between 1856 and 1865 we received from the United King dom goods to the annual value in million pounds sterling of 3.1. During the succeeding decade this rose to 6.5, but in the troublons period between 1876 and 1885 the amount fell to 2.7. Ten years later it reached a point slightly higher than 30 years previously, and continued to advance during the last nine years under review, which had an annual value equal to 5.7. As we are aware, last year's total showed a further big increase, and 1906 gives fair promise of beating all previous records.

ARRIVAL OF AUSTRIAN FLEET.

An Austro-Hungarian squadron, under the ormmand of Rear-Admiral de Jedina, arrived at Alexandria this morning from Corfu. The squadron consists of five reseels, four of them armoured craiters, each of 8,500 tons, and one torpedo destroyer, 400 tons. The names of the cruisers are Habsburg Arpad, Babenberg, and Sanct Georg, and of the torpedo destroyer, Huszar. Their crews aggregate about 1,800

The squadron, which is on a cruise in the Mediterranean, will remain in Alexandria harbour until April 11, when it will proceed to Haifa, Beyrout, and Greece.

Owing to the presence of the American equadron, and the consequent growding of the harbour, two of the cruisers anchored outside in the quarantine ground.

The Austro Hungarian Consul and Vice-Consul paid an official visit to Rear-Admiral de Jedina this morning.

The Austro Hungarian colony of our city are preparing to fete the stay of the squadron here in a fitting manner.

IMPORTANT PROPERTY SALES IN CAIRO.

Two more property sales of importance have just been concluded in the Capital. The fir t is that of the palace and grounds of Prince Said Halim, situ-ted in the Maaronf quarter, and consisting of a very fine residence and bought for £80,000 by Count Rasponi, a deputy of the Italian Parliament, through M. P. Fonti, the Cairo engineer and contractor, who acted on behalf of the purchaser. The palace was built some five years back by Mr.

Nicola Marciano at a cost of £40 000. The other property is that belonging to to be built for Messrs. Walker and Meima-meeting M. The site of 1 200 l'état apparent de la faillite. square metres was bought by its former owner in 1888 for about £1 500 and the house cost another £6,000 so that there was a profit of some £ 2,000 ver this transaction.

CAIRO TRAMWAYS.

The above company have now received the whole of the fifty cars of a new and improved pattern which were ordered last year in Belgiom, and the first lot will be put on the principal lines in the beginning of next month. Several were much damaged during their transit from Europe, caused by the very bad weather the last steamer encountered in the Mediterra nean There new cars contain a special compartment for first-class passengers, wider than those now in use, which is placed in front next to the wattman, whilst a similar compartment for ladies is at the other end, the centre being reserved for the second-class passengers.

We gave some months ago a det iled list of the several extensions and new lines the company were authorised at the time to add to their present system. The first two taken in hand, and which are now approaching completion, are the prolongation of what is known as the Khalig line from the terminus at Daher to Abhas avenue, ending at the Gamrah bridge, and the extension of the same line in the opposite direction as far as the abattoirs. For the prelongation of the Boulac line, now also under construction, from its present terminal point at the landing-stage of the Ghezireh Palace Hotel ferry to the railway workshops, it is necessary, in consequence of the extreme narrowness of some of the streets in that district, to construct a river embankment which is to be 150 metres in length and 20 metres wide, and was estimated to cost about £6 000.

According to the new concession granted by the Government in July last these three extensions will have to be ready and opened to traffic in one year from that date, that is in four months from now.

The other extensions and new lines, which include the prolongation of the one on the Shoubra-road, the new Saptieh line, and others, will be taken in hand when the three we Lloyd steamer en route to Berlin to rejoin her sident et Bo ola Bey comme membre du Comité mention above are completed.

THE SUCRERIES.

FINALLY DECLARED BANKRUPT

CONSTERNATION AND DISMAY IN COURT.

With this morning's judgment in the Mixed Court of Appeal the currain fell on the most poignant industrial tragedy which has taken place in Egypt since the collapse of the 'Banque Industrielle." Up to the last it was expected that the Appeal Court would not uphold the judgment of the Cairo Tribunal, and an eager and expectant audience gathered at the Mixed Tribunals this morning to hear what would be the decision of the Court on one of the most momentous osses ever brought before a law-court in Egypt. At 9.15 o'clock the "dispositif" of the judgment was read out by the clerk of the Court, and as soon as it was seen that the bankruptcy had been confirmed, consternation and dismay were visible on most of the countenances of the crowd.

The following is the "dispositif" of the judgment :-

Jugeant contradictoirement, le Ministère Public entendu, reçoit en la forme l'intervention des parties représentées par MMes Padoa Bey et Roussos. Au fond, écartant toutes conclusions plus amples ou contraires des parties déclare la Société Générale des Sucreries et de la Raffinerie d'Egypte mal fondée en son appel; l'en déboute; en con équence, confirme le jugement du Tribunal Mixte de Comme ce du Caire en date du 24 février et 3 mars 1906 et dont appel ;-frais à charge de la masse ;-dit, enfin, que les intervenants auront à supporter leurs pro; res frais par devant la Cour.

It is to be noted that in one of the clauses o the judgment the judges expressed the view that what has been done before bankruptcy can also be done after, and that, instead of a "concordat preventif," the company can be reconstituted by a "concordat ordinaire." This would be true in ordinary cases, but in the case of the Sucreries it is mossible as no less than one million pounds of new capital have been subscribed in the concordat and no financier would, of course, subscribe anything after the declaration of bankruptcy.

Meanwhile the Daira Sugar Corporation will take steps to take possession of those of the fectories which form part of the sesets of the late Daira Sanish. The present board of the company continues to remain in charge whereas, had the concordat been sanctioned, it would have been replaced by the eminent men whose names we mentioned last week. We much sympathise with the distingui hed counsel for the various interests which are so much affec ed by this morning's catastrophe. Maitre Carton de Wiart has done his best to some 6,000 square metres of land laid out as combine all the conflicting interests and to pleasure grounds. This property has been obtain some order out of the terrible chaos consequent on Cronier's death It must be most painful for him to see all his handiwork shat ered to pieces by the judgment, for we believe we are right in saying that dorin his long career at the Bar he has never had a more difficult task. To-morrow afternoon there will be another M. Fortunato Tederchi, agent of the Austrian meeting of the creditors of the company at Lloyd at Helonan, in the Sharia El Mada- the Cairo Mixed Court in continuation of report :-"D'après l'art. 280 (nonvean) du Code de some offices in the basement, and was sold to commerce, les syndics en toute faillite sont tenus de remettre, dars la quinzaine du jugechase of part of the Coronel property in the ment de déclaration de faillite au juge commis

"Mais, dans le cas présent, nons croyons être dispensé de cette formalité, puisque dans les rapports qui ont été dressés et publiés par les experts, au nombre desquels nous érions, lors de la demande de la Société en obtention du concordat, nous avons déjà exposé le résultat de l'examen minutieux et consciercieux des livres et pièces produits, et donné notre avis."

The report afterwards dealt with the inventory made by the syndic.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

The Archduke Joseph and the Archduches Angusta of Anstria arrived at Khartoum last Thursday. The S S. Abbas has been chartered for la salle. Il a par'é ensuite des denx tribus de their Imperial Highnesses, who will go up the White Nile as far as Kodok, after which they S nagra, qui prétendent, comme on le sait, will return to Khartoum and Cairo.

Baroness Rucker-Jenisch is leaving Alex andria this afternoon by the North-German , busband.

CIVIL SERVANTS INDIGNANT.

AN OBNOXIOUS CIRCULAR.

A correspondent writes :- Considerable excitement exists in official circles in Cairo. consequent on a circular expressing regrethat so few members of the Civil Service sub soribe to the Anglo-American Hospital. In itself there is nothing in the circular to which exception could be taken, if it were not that a list of non-subscribers has been sent to each head of department, coupled with the observation that if the required subscriptions are not forthcoming the hospital will have to be closed:

This method of raising money is looked upon by the Government servents as alto gether unwarrantable, and considerable indignation exists among the junior members of the public services, many of whom can ill afford to add to their burdens by subscribing to a hospital which cannot be said to have been established exclusively for them.

ITALIAN SCHOOLS IN CAIRO.

The erection of the large block of buildings which are to house the four schools belonging to the Italian Government in Cairo was commenced this week, and they are estimated to cost about 400,000 francs when completed. The plans and designs were prepared by Mr. T. Parvis, engineer and architect of Sharia El Madabegh, who was deputed by the authorities at Rome to submit a detailed project with estimates last year.

The schools are to be built on the 6 000 square metres bought some years ago for this purpose from the Ezyptian Government and situated on the Boulac road, close to the Abou Ellela bridge, and will have a frontage on the new Abbas boulevard which is to be made from Kasr-el-Nil to Abbassieh. This ground was sold at P.T. 90 per square metre, which was half the estimated value at the time of purchase, whereas now adjacent building sites are fetching quite ten times this sum.

The premises when completed will have accommodation for the whole of the 1,000 pupils of both sexes which attend the four schools that are now distributed in different quarters of the city. The handsome and on modious building, which are to be erected by Mesers G. Garozza and Figlio, are to be completed by the 1st November next. One of the buildings will be set spart for a commercial and technical school and the teaching staff will include English and French professors.

We understand that the Italian Government allows a yearly subvention of 200,0 0 francs, or £4,000, to the schools established in the dif ferent principal towns of Egypt and has given a grant besides towards the expense of constructing the new scholastic establishment in Cairo.

NEW EGYPTIAN COMPANY.

Yesterday the action brought by he New E yotian Company against the Ezyptian Government came on for hearing before the Cairo Mixed Tribonals. The company, among other cor cessions obtains d from the G vernment, has the right of creating and ameliorating islets on the Nile. But when the company has created purnment of the case until the 17th proxo

AN INTERESTING BREED OF DOGS.

To the Editor of the Egyptian Gazette. Dear Sir,-I should be much obliged if any of your readers could afford me accurate information as to the origin of the very ineresting breed of dogs emanating from, and named after, the village of Armant in Upper

Such specimens as I have had under bservation from time to time seem to possess very marked and interesting characteristics and lay fair claim, I think, to some attention from a utility point of view and also for their handsome appearance.

As watch dogs they are held in just esteem y the natives, especially for protecting crops and cattle, and from the age of six weeks will loudly herald the approach of any stranger. This is a characteristic of the breed and not confined to isolated specimens, as is frequently the case with English dogs such as bull-dogs and mastiffs. Indeed the ball-dog which finds favour on the show-bench now-a-days hardly possesses sufficient evergy to bark if trodden upon, and the mast ff is no longer necessarily associated with strength, faithfulnes, and tenacity of purpose.

I have been informed by natives that the 'Armant' originated from dogs of the St. Bernard race which were brought over to this country by Napoleon's army and thereafter interbred with the "parish." This might possibly account for the breadth of skull and shape of limb and is interesting if only from a legendary point of view, though I am convinced a modern St. Bernard would soon succumb to the summer heat in Upper Egypt. The natives of the Maremma plains and the peasants of Catalonia have a special breed of dogs possessing somewhat similar characteristics to the "Armant" and these are highly prized and carefully bred in those districts.

Possibly if some of the native notables who breed the 'Armant' would form a standard of "points." the Khedivial Agricultural Society might be induced to form a class for exhibition purposes at their annual Show, offering prizes for the best specimens and thereby fostering

There is also another distinct race of dogs in this country bred by the Bedouins and used by them for henting gazalle. One or two specimens which I have seen were somewhat akin to, but more powers.
hound —Yours faithfully,
G. H. LUDDLF. to, but more powerful than, the English grey-

NATIONAL BANK OF EGYPT.

CONVERSION TO STATE BANK.

The changes involved by the death of Sir Eiwin Palmer, says the "Economist," are rot confined to the succession of a new Governor, but are likely to develop into several radical alterations affecting the very constitution of the National Bank of Egypt, with a corresponding reaction upon the financial situation of Egypt and its relations with the money markets of the world. Or, perhaps, it would be correct to say that these alterations form the organic evolution inevitably necessary if the (Reuter) Bank is to fulfil its natural functions. As is opportunely observed by a sound critic in Egypt, the National Bank in the ten years it now counts of existence has had little that is national in its functions save the name. It is issue, which is beginning to attain a creditable circulation even among the native population, amounting now to about one million sterling. Furthermore, it enjoys in a special degree the confidence of the Government, which, from the moment the Anglo-French accord liberated its finances from international supervision, made cerning loading, unseaworthiness, underman the National Bank its banker for the deposit of funds and the service of the Treasury. But gresse \a 277. that so far, is all. While the Bank's connection with the Government administrations, and its affiliations, so to speak, with the Agricultural Bank, and, in a minor degree, with the Bank of Abyesinia, invest it with a status which otherwise it would not possess the role of the Bank in the financial and commercial world of Egypt itself is in reality of less considerable ont monté à 337. L'Anglo-American Nile a influence than that of the Credit Lyonnais, which occupies in many respects a preponderant situation in this country. It is, in the first place, the treasurer of the Caisse de la Dette, still the second great Exchaquer of Egypt; and as a deposit bink par excellence, with an extensive business in pure banking, which has been the strength of this institution the Crédit Lyonnsis has regulated the money market of Egypt to an extent hitherto beyond the power of the National Bank. The position, in other words, is this : If the Bank can count on the State, the State cannot count in an equal degree on the Bank. The policy of the latter has been that of an ordinary joint stock institution : to gain the utmost usufruct possible of the funds in its custody; and, therefore, should a crisis ever unhappily arise, it banks, to seek for aid from the anomalouslynamed National Bank, since the latter might be similarly involved in the crisis, and stand itself in need of assistance to sustain its credit.

While the large reserve funds bequeathed by the Caisse de la Dette existed. and so long as it lasts, the need of building up a central metallic reserve was a matter of some remoteness; but the gradual exhaustion of this substantial legacy lends urgency to the question. The authority from whom I have quoted affirms that the project of transforming the National Bank into a State Bank, on the pattern of the Bank of England, the Bank of France, and the other national institutions of Europe, has made perceptible progress within the past month, and that a definite solution is not far distant. It is tolerably certain that the powers of the Governor of portion de la réserve aux engagements a passé the Bank will be diminished, and those of de 48 13 & 46 98 Cest par prudence que les the Board and the Government delegate directeurs maintiennent & 4 % le taux officiel increased. The Caisse de la Dette has had de l'escompte qui, l'année dernière à la même many detractors, but it cannot be denied époque, était à 2 1/2 pour cent. that it stood as the symbol of sound Egyptian credit, and to-day the Government is profiting by the wealth accomplated under its vigilance. As the Caisse is now, however, travelling on the road to extinction, the void has to be filled. The enormous afflux of wealth to Egypt, and the disarray of the London money market last year-to which Egypt's requirements power. fully contributed - are among the many cogent reasons for the establishment of Egyptian finances on a basis of independent stability.

KAZANTZI CONCERT.

Judging from outward and visible signs, floral tributes, wreaths of laurel and so forth M. and Mile Kazanizi scored a marvellous and spontaneous success on Monday afternoon at the Savey Hotel From a perhaps ultra critical and exigeance view these artistes would have shown to greater advantage it they had appear ed earlier in the season, and before Signor Serato and M. Paul Kochausky had imbued their audience with such a high belief in their various powers. There is much to admire in M. Kazantzi's playing, his technique is careint, he has a sense of restraint and quiet feeling that are all in his favour, and it is perhaps unfair to judge him by the standards already mentioned. His second item, Bach's "Aria," was a great improvement on his first, Mendelssohn's "Concerto en mi," which was in no way convincing, and Wieniawski's "Scheizo Tarentelle" was received with very fair applause. He also received various bouquets of flowers atter his rendering of the "Caprice" by Paganiui, though from a personal point of view he scored the success of the afternoon in his rendering of the "Souvenir de Museon" by Wieniawski, the central theme of which forms the melody of that delightful adaptation "I will wear no red sarafan, mother cease your weeping.

As is often the case, Mile Kazantzi is a better planist than she is accompanist. Her playing was too obvious and at times was inclined to oversha ow the subtilities of the violin. Her first solo was one of those long descriptive morcea x of L'szt's, 'St. François marchant sur les il a " ai d the long note of elucidation fight go the programme made it an eary ma ter to fo low. ENGLISHMAN'S GRUESOME STORY

An Englishman, Mr. Leland Buxton, who has recently arrived in London, after a tour in the Persian Gulf and in the Yemen, relates a remarkable story of the state of things existing at Sana.

"We found Sans," he stated in an interview. to be practically depopulated, having been reduced from a population of 70,000 to something like 20,000 as a result of the famine during the Arab siege. The Jews suffered terribly during this period, and almost the whole town is deserted. Sans, which, so far as I know, has only been visited by a few English men, has magnificent and very large buildings, covered with decorations, and the town is surrounded by mud walls. There was a very large number of Turkish troops in the town when I was there. It was stated that the 200 yards, 300 P.T. presented by Mr. Harold-Imam was driven to rebellion against the Turks by the local sheikha."

Mr. Buxton stated that on his way to the capital he found villages had been destroyed Capt. H. H. Wilson by the Turkish artillery, and that a great portion of the route to Sana was entirely depopulated. Large numbers of skeletons and skulis marked the route.

The siege of Sana was attended by terrible suffering and starvation, and cannibalism Mr. F. W. S Hayler occurred both among the Arabs and the Turks. The people were reduced to terrible straits, and one Turk himself admitted that he had killed and eaten three Arabs. The dogs, which are a characteristic feature of most Eastern towns, had disappeared, both they and the cats | Ven. Archdeac n Gwynie 83 1 case N. R. A having been used as food. The only European in Sana is an Italian trader, who was in the Mr. F. W. S. Hayler place throughout the siege, and who has lived | Se.gt. A. Munn there for 20 years.

While in Bagdad Mr. Buxton specially made quiries as to what extent British commerce Was being affected by German trade, but found that the former was still holding its own.

REGISTRY OFFICES IN EGYPT.

Among the questions dealt with in the Judicial Adviser s Report is that of the imperaavely urgent character of the proposed decentralisation of the Registry Offices. As is well known, there are only three offices where reg stration can be effected at present, v 2, at the Tribunals of Cairo, Alexandria, and Mansourah, it we leave aside he Mehkemehs, where lew registrations are effected.

The most cursory glance, says the Adviser, at the coustant increase in the number of deeds to which publicity is given-an increase which has been enormous during the last few years, especially at the Cairo Tribunal - is, I should think, sufficient to convince anybody that the present situation can scarce y last much longer without the gravest danger to the security of titles to real property. The following table shows the work which is thrown on the providing for the creation of a number of Registry Offices in the provinces, would do wway with the present overcrowding, which is so prej dicial to the efficiency of an administration in which exactness and precision are absolutely indispensable. And the Government alone could efficitively supervise the working of such an administration, once the Registries were no longer concentrated at the seats of l'ribunals.

In these circumstances, it is more than ever testrable that an agreement should be arrived at without further delay, and that the proposed reform, which is clearly quite as much in the interest of foreigners as of natives, should speedily be effected.

EXPORTS OF COTTON IN FEBRUARY.

The experts of cotton yarn from Great Britain in February, according to the Board of Trade returns, were again on a large scale, making the aggregate weight so far this year almost a record amount. A feature is the argely incressed takings of Roumania. Then our cotton piece goods shipments for the last to months are decidedly heavier than in 1905, and our exports of textile machinery are on a moth freer scale this year as compar ed with 1505. Employment in Lancashire in spinning and weaving was never so full; indeed, operative weavers are scarce, looms being idle for want of hands being reported from the district of Blackburn. All skilled labour is working full hours, and in some cases overtime is being run.

With the object of at mulating public interest in Lar cashire in the work of the Briti h Corton-Growing Association, and obtaining official county support on behalf of the movement, a p ivate conference was held a few days ago at Liverpool Town Hall between representatives of County Palatine and the Cotton-Growing Association. The company present included the Lord Lieutenant (Earl Derby), the Lord Mayors of Liverpool and Manchester, he High Sheriff of Lancashire (Sir John Thursby), the High Shariff elect (Mr. T. Broadhur t, and Sir Alfred Jones (president of the Co ton-Growing Association), Important developments are anticipatad from this influential og-operation,

BRITISH RIFLE CLUB (ALEX).

The three silver badges awarded by the National Rifle Association for competitions amongst the members who obtained "Skilled Shot" certificates last season will be shot for next Saturday, 24th inst. This will not interfere with practice, which will be carried on as usual simultaneously with the above-mentioned competition, commencing at 2.30 pm. Members are requested to be on the range as early as possible as it is desirable to retire from 200 yards not later than 3.30 p.m.

Last Saturday a "Milton" Silver Badge was won by Mr. A. G. Lias.

The committee would be glad to have the names of any British subjects desirous of becoming members for inclusion in the list now being printeding

FOOTBALL.

We have received the following communication for publication :- The "Scots Team," which has achieved quite an enviable reputation in the local football world, has pleasure in recording another successful match.

Our opponents, the "Customs Team," who are much our superiors in size and weight, were decisively beaten after a hard game, by 2 goals to 1.

Considering that in the previous week we were bes en by 4 goals to 1 this is a most commendable performance, and every praise is due to the plucky little band of Scots. They have been under training only 6 months and show an excellent result for the labour he towed upon h m. In their tartan sashes and white garb they form as bonnie a band as ever fought under the flag of dear old Scotland. Well done Scots !

CHRONIQUE JUDICIAIRE

COUR D'APPEL MIXTE.

L'affaire du Mena House.

(ARRET RENDU PAR LA 2ME CHAMBRE)

Attendu que les appelants prétendent qu'en l'espèce n'existerait aucun des cas de préemption déterminés par la loi (art. 1 n°. 2 du décret du 26 mars 1900).

Que préalablement à cette exception, fondée sur des textes légaux, ils invoquent encore deux movens d'irrecevabilité : le premier tiré du fait qu'en l'espèce l'objet de la vente ne serait pas à proprement parler un simple immeuble, mais un tonds industriel, comprenant des éléments non sujets à préemption (achalandage, non mobilier...); le second, tiré du mobile purement spéculatif poursuivi par les préempteurs, lesquels chercheraient à s'enrichir aux dépens d'autrui, alors que la préemption serait établie pour l'utilité réciproque des héritiers plutôt que pour le profit personnel des voisins.

Attenda que s'il appartient et s'il incombe au pouvoir judiciaire de se conformer aux principes du droit naturel et de l'équité en cas de silence, d'insuffisance et d'obscurité de la loi (Regt. d'Org. Judiciaire art. 34 et c. c. art. 11), il ne lui appartient plus de statuer par voie de dispositions générales dans les matières législativement réglementées, et ce, en créant par voie de jurisprudence des distinctions, des exclusions ou des fins de non recevoir que la loi n'a pas prévues; Qu'en l'espèce les deux fins de non recevoir qu'elles ne s'appuient sur aucun texte légal. Que l'on pourrait, à la vérité, concevoir un système législatif qui laisserait au juge la faculté d'apprécier en fait si la préemption justifie d'un intérêt exceptionnel à l'acquisition de l'immeable préempté, tel que celui qui existe manifestement dans le cas prévu par le n° 2 § 2 de l'art. 1 du décret sur la préemption ou dans des cas analogues, c'esta à-dire lorsqu'il s'agit d'arriver à l'extinction par voie de confusion de servitudes existantes ou simplement de prévenir des incommodités à naître d'un nouveau rapport de voisinage : mais les conditions d'admissibilité de la préemption étant établies par la loi, et ce, en des termes impératifs, qui ne laissent au juge aucun pouvoir d'appréciation en dehors (bien entenda) de sa faculté naturelle d'interpréter les dispositions légales, il va de soi que le juge ne peut rejeter la préemption pour des considérations ultra-légales. quelque rationnelles ou équitables qu'elles puissent lui paraître.

Attendu qu'en l'espèce l'appelant invoque, d'ailleurs vainement, l'esprit général de la législation ; que, tout d'abord, il arque à tort du prétendu mobile spéculatif de la préemption litigieuse ; car toute préemption constitue une spéculation, et il est impossible d'en concevoir une qui ne constituerait pas un avantago pour le fonds du préempteur, en même temps qu'une utilité personnelle pour le préempteur lui-même ; en sorte que la fin de non recevoir tirée d'un prétendu mobile spéculatif revient en somme à faire un procès à la loi ;

Que vainement l'appelant a encore argué du fait qu'en l'espèce l'immeuble préempté constituerait un fonds industriel, alors que la loi autorise la préemption de toutes espèces L'E. de fonds (terrains ou constructions), pourva | Fos. qu'il s'agisse de fonds tenus en pleine propriété, soit par le préempteur, soit par le

Quel'appelant n'ad'ailleurs pas expliqué pourquoi les fonds industriels devraient échapper à la loi commune et ne pourraient pas être préemptés, quoique susceptibles de servir de base à une préemption, ni pour quels motifs il conviendrait de faire en la matière des distinctions individuelles en créant une sorte de privilège en faveur de certaines catégories d'individue.

Qu'on ne voit pas, par exemple, (à ne considérer que l'espèce actuelle), pourquoi l'établissement cennu sous le nom de "Mena House" ancienne propriété des époux Locke-King ne pourrait être exploité par les préempteurs actuels, les époux Rifki, par voie de location on autrement, au même titre qu'il l'était jadis par les époux Locke-King, ni pourquoi une prétérence devrait être accordée à un professionnel de l'hôtellerie, ou à une société anonyme ;

Que vainement le concluant argue enfin de ce que dans les fonds industriels l'objet de la vente ne serait pas un simple immemble, mais comprendrait, en outre, un achalandage et un mobilier, éléments non sujets à préemption ; qu'à bon droit les premiers jages ont tenu ces éléments comme des accessoires destinés à suivre le sort du principal, mais c'est bien à tort qu'ils ont en même temps tranché une questi n non soulevés par les parties, en supposant une prétendue faculté de requérir une distraction des meubles, soit de la part de préempteur, soit de la part du préempté ; ce qui est en con tradiction patente avec les prémisses d'une thèse consistant à considérer le mobilier compris dans la vente d'un hôtel comme un accessoire de l'immeuble. Que la vérité est que le droit de préemption est indivisible (Kadry Pach, statut réel, d'après le rite Hanafite, art. 135 N° 1); d'où la conséquence formellement prévue par le texte précité: "Que nul ne peut "acquérir par préemption une partie d'un " immeuble vendu, en laissant l'autre partie à " l'acheteur "; d'où encore, la conséquence non moins logique, que le préempteur ne peut acquérir le fonds préempté sans ses accessoires naturels on industriels, à moins que la distraction ne soit acceptée par le préempté :

Attendu que la véritable question litigieuse est donc de savoir si la préemption actuelle rentre dans l'un des cas prévus par l'art. 1 Nº 2 du décret sur la préemption du 26 mars 1900;

BULLETIN DE LA BOURSE

(Aujourd'hui à midi et demie) La faillite des Sucreries, confirmée. ce matin par la Cour d'Appel Mixte, a produit sur notre marché un effet déprimant. La plupart des valeurs accusent une réac tion plus ou moins sensible, excepté l'Agricole, la Ramleh Railway et la Delta Light, sur les quelles un mouvement à la hausse est im-

Quant aux Sucreries, elles sont offertes à 13 francs. Ce désastre n'a d'égal que celui de l'Industrielle.

Pour les autres on n'a qu'à consulter la cote

La Land Allotment est momentanément délaissée à des prix très avantageux, 4 l'action et 160 la part de fondateur. Il va sans dire que ces cours sont purement nominaux et que la plus petite demande ferait immédiatement hausser les prix. Les recettes de la Ramleh Railway du 11 au

7 mars 1905 se sont élevées à L.E. 915 contre L.E. 692 en 1905. Ces prix indiquent une p'us value de près de 40 % en faveur de l'annés courante. Du 1er octobre 1905 au 17 mars 1906 catte augmentation approche de 30 %. soit L.E. 24481 en 1905-1906, contre L.E. 19020 en 1904-1905.

L'Assemblée Générale Ordinaire des Actionnaires de la Société Anonyma des Immeubles d'Ezypte, qui a été tenue ces jours-ci, a décidé le paiement d'un dividende de 28 shellings par action pour l'Exercice 1905, contre 24 shellings payés pour l'Exercice 1904. Cela fait du 7 %

TO O R VISITORS.

The Egyptian Gazette has much pleasure in presenting to its subscribers the accompanying description of some of the many interesting routes by which they may travel homewards. Great care has been taken to arrange them as accurately and concisely as possible, and it will be found that none of them are fraught with difficulty. In choosing the route home there are several things to be considered. To begin with there is the difference in climate between Egypt and the various points at which you may arrive in Europe.

This depends partly upon the month in which you leave Egypt, for Cairo in January may be a little warmer than the Riviera, and possibly not so warm as Sicily, but in March it will be warmer than Rome, and more uniformly warm than many other places in Furope Many people leave Egypt far too early in the year, for as a rule the weather in April and May is perfect. The warmest place to go to on leaving Egypt is Sicily.

Some will want to take into consideration the number of days to be spent at sea, and we therefore subjoin a list showing the time occupied on each of the various routes between Egypt and the Continent of Europe.

SICILY.

The direct route to Sicily is by the Florio-

Rubattino Co.'s steamers which leave Alexandria weekly for MESSINA, where one takes train to TAORMINA, one of the most charming and popular places on the island. Giardini is he station at which to alight, and the drive up to Taormina is most delightful, occupying about one hour. In and around the town is much to interest the visitor. The theatre is of Greek origin, but restored under the Romans.

CATANIA is the starting place for the ascent of Etna and here also is a fine Cathedral. The Greek, Roman, and Saracenic remains that are found all over the island, are an endless sources of pleasure. SYRACUSE has an interesting history, having been a Greek city, which was designed by Demosthenes in

B.C. 413, and taken by the Romans in B.C. 212, when Archimedes was slain - his tomb is to be seen. The cathedral was once an ancient pagan temple. PALERMO, with about 300,000 inhabitants, is the capital of the Island, and enjoys a delightful climate. Much of interest is to be found in this fine city. The Palazzo

Reale is of Saracenic origin and close to it the church of S. Gi vannia degli Eremiti with its picturesq' e cloisters. The Cathedral, Museum,

Botanic Gardens, Villa Giulia and Royal Park

CENTRAL ITALY.

The fine steamers of the North German during the season for Naples, the voyage

Palermo by the Florio-R battino Co.'s steamers, which leave daily. One cannot approach

Naples or leave it without wishing to explore some of its islands, besides the lovely places on its bay-Castellamare and Sorrento. The small steamer that takes you to Sorrento [you

Leaving the Eternal City with much regret, a railway journey of five hours brings you to

FLORENCE, where another week can well be spent admiring the City of Flowers and its s rrounding country. In Florence itself the churches and galleries are of absorbing interest, whilst the local promenades and excursions should not be omitted. The Cascine is the most attractive and fashionable promenade in Florence, whilst the Viale dei Colli, one of the finest walks in Europe, opened 35 years ago, goes winding up through the hills a distance of four miles. The most delightful excursion outside Florence is that to Vallombrosa, with its Monastery 3,300 feet above the sea level. This is made first by ordinary train wheel railway to Saltino. The ascent through groves of oaks takes an hour, and most

Milan, and one of the most delightful places imaginable to pass a quiet stay. The total absence of vehicular traffic strikes one as very strange; no horse, cart, carriage or bicycle is to be seen, and yet there is the sound of life at every turn. The approach to Venice from the Adriatic is unlike that of any other seaport. The town seems to be grad ally, like Aphrodite, born of the sea, no hills behind, no stretches of rock, but first the tops of Campaniles appear above the horizon, then slowly the whole glittering town rises like a fairy mirage out of the calm lagoon.

Going northwards from Vilan you make the tour of the beautiful Italian lakes.

COMO, the birthplace of the younger Pliny, is reached in one-and-a-quarter hours by train by way of Monza:

Boats leave Como frequently for the other towns on the lake, which is very beautiful, and the scenery on either side going up the lake is most enchanting. CERNOBBIO is a charming spot; then come Tremezzo, Cadenabbia, and Menaggio with the prettily-situated town of Bellaggio opposite. The walk from Tremezzo along the shore of the lake to Menaggio is most enjoyable. A steam tram runs from Menaggio to Porlezza on Lake Lugano in three-quarters of an hour, then steamer to Lugano in two-andthree-quarter hours.

SWITZERLAND.

Switzerland, the heart of Europe, has been described as "A cluster of delights and LUGANO is some 20 miles from Como and reached by train in one-and-a-half hours. It has a population of 10,000 people and is charmingly situated on the Lake of Lugano, amidst lovely Italian scenery. Aro nd it rise M. San Salvatore, M. de Caprino and M. Generoso.

LOCARNO may be reached by rail from Bellinzona in forty minntes. This pretty town, situated at the top of Lake Maggiore, has a mild climate, and is an excellent winter resort. The church Madonna del Sasso, situated above the town, is worth a visit, as it contains interesting paintings, "Entombment," by Ciseri, and "The Flight into Egypt," by Bramantion.

LUCERNE.—A striking picture on the Lake of Lucerne facing the Rigi and Pilatus and the snow-clad Alps.
In and around the town the walks are charming and the excursions to be made from Lucerne by boat, rail, etc., are very numerous. The Lake of Lucerne abounds in delightful excursions, those to the Rigi, Pilatus, Burgen stock and Sonnenberg needing a special visit each. Other excursions on the lake can be made by steamer, and the ever-changing scenery on the trip from Lucerne to Fluelen is a source of delight to the lover of nature. AVOY HOTEL, Florence. Kurhaus Hotel et Pension Titlis. BRUNNEN, charmingly situated on the most beautiful part of the Lake of Lucerne, commands magnificent views of lake and mountain scenery. Along the Lake of Uri from Brunnen to Fluelen runs the famous

> A delightful excursion from Lucerne is that to ENGELBERG. Take boat to Stansstad and from Stansstad it is about 1 hour and 40 min by Electric Railway, with delightful scenery en route. The ascent of Titlis, is made from here, and the panoramic view of the Alps is grand; extending from Monte Santis to the Matterho n.

THE BERNESE OBERLAND.-INTER LAKEN a favourite summer resortand the best centre for making excursions in the Oberland, abounding in fine walks and views. There is a magnificent view of the Jungfrau from the Hoheweg, a fine avenue of walnut trees the chief resort of visitors. Interlaken is also not tar from the famous waterfalls, Giessbach, Trummelback and Staubbuck. Then also the glaciers of Grindelwald and view from Murren and the Schynige Platte are sights not to be CHATEAU D'OEX. 3,500 ft. above the sea on the new Electric Railway between Montreux and Interlaken, surrounded by magnificent scenery, with pure dry air. Much frequented by English people in Summer and Winter.

GREECE and IONIAN ISLES.

Many people visit Greece after wintering in Egypt as it is so easily reached from Alexandria; the climate in April is charming. The best steamers are those of the Khedivia Mail Co. and the Russian Steam Navigation Co. If possible tourists should arrange to be in ceremonies, and to be present at the dancing on the Easter Tuesday festival held at Megara for which a special train is run from Athens. It is worth while to spend a few days in CORFU on account of the beauty of the scenery. There is also good snipe and quail shooting to be had.

The quickest through Continental routes are by the P. & O. Brindisi express from mails from the great liner arrived from Bombay.

in Egypt.

These express steamers have enormously powerful engines, and attain a very high rate of speed, having been specially built to carry the British mail from Port Said to Brindisi. If you are going straight through to England you will find the train waiting at Brindisi which will take you to Calais without changing. It has complete arrangements for
